2013 APCO/NENA FLORIDA CHAPTERS ANNUAL CONFERENCE GEOCAD911 SPECIAL

Welcome to the 2013 conference. This year the people at ICW are presenting a special offer to interested parties to purchase GeoCAD911 including MapInfo Professional and one year of technical support for the bundled price of $6,700.00 per single user license. To qualify, you must have a copy of this offer signed by an authorized officer of ICW and a representative of your agency and you must provide a purchase order to ICW for the dollar amount of the quantity of units you wish to purchase within 90 days of October 28, 2013.

By accepting this offer, you are not committing to purchase GeoCAD911. You are reserving the right to exercise this offer at the discretion of your agency.

The people at ICW will provide installation services in conjunction with this offer at no additional expense except for costs associated with travel, lodging, etc. if ICW staff must travel to your location to assist in the implementation of GeoCAD911.

Alternatively, training is available at our offices at the daily rate of $1,400.00. If you do not have the necessary mapping software and/or data, ICW can offer product and services to address this issue. If you have your own digital map data, ICW staff will provide consultative assistance to you in preparing the data for use with GeoCAD911 at no additional charge.
